Interchurch World Movement Keynote to Be Sounded at Banquet.

SEEK $336,777,572 FUND
Flying Squadron Headed By
John D. Rockefeller Jr.,
To Tell Aims.

The keynote of the Interchurch World Movement, in which thirty denominations have part, will be sounded at a dinner in the Washington Hotel April 5. The dinner will be attended by leaders in the movement and by other outstanding figures in the religious, industrial, and political life of the nation.

A "flying squadron," working in the interests of the campaign, which is to raise a fund of $336,777,572 to be used in the spread of Christianity, following a visit to Baltimore on the afternoon of April 5, will attend the Washington dinner and outline the work, scope and plans of the movement. In this group, which will tour the country, are John D. Rockefeller, Jr.; Dr. John R. Mott, of New York, director of the United World Work Campaign in 1918; Dr. S. Earl Taylor, of New York, connected with the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church; Dr. John Y. Aitchison, of Boston, secretary of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society; Dr. William Hiram Foulkes, of Philadelphia, secretary of the executive committee of the National Service Commission of the Presbyterian Church; Lyman L. Pierce, of New York, and other men of national prominence.

Lansing to Preside.
The invitations for the dinner are being sent out in the names of Vice President Thomas R. Marshall, Frederick H. Gillett, Speaker of the House; Secretary Josephus Daniels of the Navy; Gen. John J. Pershing, U. S. A.; Senator Selden P. Spencer, of Missouri; Senator Warren G. Harding, of Ohio; and Robert Lansing, former Secretary of State. Mr. Lansing will preside. It will be his first public appearance since he left the State Department.

It is expected that covers will be laid for 600.

Why Money Is Needed.
Some of the reasons why such a large sum of money is needed were cited as follows:
The average weekly pay of ministers in the United States is $18. Fifty-eight million Americans belong to no church.
One million sick persons will be refused admission to church hospitals this year because the hospitals are so overcrowded.
The "flying squadron," armed with the foregoing facts, will visit Pittsburgh, Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago, Minneapolis, Kansas City, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Buffalo, Boston, Philadelphia, and New York in search of funds.

E. H. SOTHERN WILL ADDRESS CITY CLUB

"The Place of the Theater in the Life of the Community" will be discussed at the weekly luncheon forum of the City Club, Wednesday, March 31, by E. H. Sothern, the eminent actor, who is appearing in Shakespearean repertoire in this city this week.

Mr. Sothern will speak of the powerful influence of the theater on the community, particularly on the plastic minds of young people. He will present the idea of having cities and towns provide a place where the best things in the drama may be presented free of charge to the children.

"It is a mistake to suppose," said Mr. Sothern, "that the poetic drama—Shakespeare, for example—is above the heads of the children. Adequately presented, even by amateurs, a Shakespearean play will be heartily enjoyed by the children, and will influence them strongly toward an appreciation of beauty, seamliness and nobility. In this way may we hope to see public taste gradually elevated."

Militia Guards Suspects In Child Murder Case

Stouenville, Ohio, March 28.—Several companies of militia guarded the Jefferson County jail today, following threats to lynch two negroes held on suspicion of having killed 11-year-old Frances South in Adena Thursday night. The negroes were placed under heavy guard in separate cells. Crowds gathered in the streets to discuss the crime, but soldiers dispersed them as rapidly as they formed.

One of the negroes was said to have admitted he and his companion were in Adena on the day of the child's murder.

Posses continued to scour the country within a radius of 100 miles of Adena in search of the murderers.

Two Chilean Newspaper Offices Damaged by Fire

Buenos Aires, March 28.—Two fires—one in the office of El Mercurio, leading newspaper of Santiago, Chile, and the other in the plant of El Mercurio de Valparaiso, Chile—caused considerable damage throughout South American official circles yesterday.

In some quarters there was a tendency to believe the fires may have grown out of the newspapers' attitude in the recent Peruvian-Chilean-Bolivian dispute. Both newspapers had attacked Peru bitterly. Officials here, however, looked upon the simultaneous blazes as a mere coincidence.

SERVICES THIS WEEK
Episcopal Laymen Arrange
Special Series of Meetings.

When Palm Sunday is accompanied by weather of yesterday's variety, Washington churches are usually taxed to overflowing. Yesterday was no exception, thousands of people who thronged Washington's avenues and parks being decorated with sprigs of palm, indicating they had attended church earlier in the day.

Without exception, all of the churches of Washington reported unusually large congregations yesterday. In all churches, the day was observed by appropriate sermons and special music. Nearly all of the churches were decorated with palms and in the Catholic and Episcopal churches the palms were distributed to the communicants. A number of the churches held special services yesterday. At St. Patrick's Church the capacity of the auditorium was taxed at each of nine masses, except the 4 o'clock mass in the morning. At a number of churches, it was necessary to turn away a number of people at the door. At Mount Vernon Place Methodist Episcopal Church, South, an overflow service was held in the Sunday school room.

At the Church of the Epiphany, a large class was confirmed yesterday morning by the Rt. Rev. Alfred Harding, Episcopal Bishop of Washington.

Representative Willis C. Hawley, of Oregon, will speak on "The Unearned Increment of Life" at the first non-denominational Holy Week services at Kelt's Theater from 12:30 to 1 o'clock today.

The services are an innovation in the observance of Holy Week in Washington. The movement was launched by the Laymen's Service Association of the Episcopal Church, and leaders of other denominations have joined in the plan. The length of the services will be limited strictly to thirty minutes, and there will be no collections taken at any of the services.

The Rt. Rev. Alfred Harding, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Washington, will preside at the service today. Representatives Frederick W. Dallinger, of Massachusetts; Frederick W. Rowe, of New York; and Horace M. Towner, of Iowa, will speak tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday respectively. Ministers of various churches in the city will preside at each of the services.

GIRL'S UNCLE GRABS
"GARTER INSPECTOR"

New York, March 28.—Carl Deitrich, G. I. (Garter Inspector), was arranged in Brooklyn today while pretty Miss Jessie Marrin, 17, and her uncle, Joseph Marrin, were complaining witnesses. Miss Marrin's story, which Deitrich admitted was true, was that as she was about to enter her uncle's home last night Deitrich appeared, showed her some kind of a badge, said there had been a robbery, and added:

"I'm a detective. A lot of garters have been stolen. I must see yours."

In spite of showing her garter, Miss Marrin emitted a lusty scream which brought her uncle on the run. He collared Deitrich.
